

IMPORTANT UPDATE: Seasonal Influenza 2012

To: PHYSICIANS, PROVIDERS AND OFFICE STAFF

From: Colleen M. Walters, MAHCM

Subject: Important Reimbursement Information: 2012 Seasonal Influenza

Date: September 17, 2012

If you are providing flu shots at your office, this notice requires your immediate attention. *PalmettoGBA recently listed these coding and reporting changes effective immediately.** These changes will affect the billing of flu shots.

*NOTE: Reimbursement for the 2012 -2013 season has not yet been updated.

Drug Name Description	Code
Agriflu Afluria Flulaval Fluvirin Fluzone Other	Q2034 Q2035 Q2036 Q2037 Q2038 Q2039	You must provide an NDC number and the units or volume given for each injection. Please contact MPR	Q codes are Only used for Medicare or Medicare HMO plans to identify the drug you are using
Administration	G0008		Medicare and Medicare HMO plans only
IDC-9	V07.81
Vaccine codes for all other plans	90654 thru 90660	NDC and units or volume also required. Please contact MPR	Please refer to your vaccine supplier for the correct CPT code
Administration	90471 1 vaccine 90472 each add vac

Please contact MPR at (937) 390-2564 ext 205 or 117. Have your Vaccine name, NDC number (you can find this on the drug box) and the units or volume you are administering. Any flu vaccine billed without this information will deny at the insurance carrier for payment.