

IMPORTANT UPDATE: Seasonal Influenza 2012

To: PHYSICIANS, PROVIDERS AND OFFICE STAFF

From: Colleen M. Walters, MAHCM

Subject: Important Reimbursement Information: 2012 Seasonal Influenza

Date: September 17, 2012

If you are providing flu shots at your office, this notice requires your immediate attention. *PalmettoGBA recently listed these coding and reporting changes effective immediately. These changes will affect the billing of flu shots.

*NOTE: Reimbursement for the 2012 -2013 season has not yet been updated.

Drug Name	Code
Description
Agriflu	Q2034	You must provide	Q codes are Only used for
Afluria	Q2035	an NDC number	Medicare or Medicare HMO
Flulaval	Q2036	and the units or	plans to identify the drug
Fluvirin	Q2037	volume given for	you are using
Fluzone	Q2038	each injection.	7.
Other	Q2039	Please contact MPR
		1 7 20
Administration	G0008		Medicare and Medicare HMO plans only
IDC-9	V04.81
Vaccine codes for		NDC and units or	Please refer to your vaccine
all other plans	90654 thru 90660	volume also	supplier for the correct CPT
		required.	code
		Please contact MPR	to see the second secon
Administration	90471 1 vaccine
	90472 each add vac		1

Please contact MPR at (937) 390-2564 ext 205 or 117. Have your Vaccine name, NDC number (you can find this on the drug box) and the units or volume you are administering. Any flu vaccine billed without this information will deny at the insurance carrier for payment.